A Careful and Systematic Canvass of the New Metropolis Denotes
a Surprising Sentiment Toward Independent Candi-

The Journal, using the figures of this remarkable one day's poll as a basis, and estimating the voting strength of the city at 350,000, figured that the election ought in these proportions to result as follows:

|-------------------------|--------|--|
| Robert A. Van Wyck..... | 23,400 | this remarkable man, Kings County came |
| John A. Van Wyck..... | 13,500 | to the front for the great champion of |
| Neil Low..... | 12,800 | the masses. |
| W. F. Tracy..... | 9,400 | made George nearly 400 over Low, who |

The strength donated by Mr. George's co-workers was, with much surprise,
 leading the support of strong organizations such as Tammany Hall and the Platt organization and the two months of active campaigning, and the widespread public sentiment in his favor which Mr. Low's friends had secured for him, the great popularity of the Independent Democratic ticket was regarded as nothing out of the marvellous.

Nor did Mr. George show any decreasing strength when the army of massess returned from their Tuesday night fight.
 He more than held his own, while Mr.
 Low seemed able to retain his own especially on the ground of the "New and Improved" platform, and absolutely returned votes. In the Journal poll, which is the most honest one that has been taken in this city, gave George 27,127. Van Wyck

 26,341. Low 20,002 and Tracy 13,900.

Three hundred young men polled the Greater New York and the Journal showed that the George movement was increasing with the fleeting minutes. That day he polled 12,993. Van Wyck, 10,328; Low, 8,139; and Tracy, 4,139. The total vote gave George, 40,123; Van Wyck,
 38,759; Low, 27,596, and Tracy, 19,272.

| | |
|--------------------|--------|
| Mr. George..... | 17,991 |
| Mr. Van Wyck..... | 16,223 |
| Mr. Tracy..... | 15,223 |
| General Tracy..... | 1,223 |
| Total..... | 32,657 |

The vote by boroughs was interesting, as demonstrated by the sentiment in the various sections of the new metropolis. In the city of New York, Mr. George received 34,670 votes; Mr. George, 34,477; Mr. Low, 10,270, and General Tracy, 1,330.

Wyck received 1,911. Mr. George, 2,375. To the impartial observer it would seem that the fight had already narrowed down to a battle royal between Mr. George and Judge Van Wyck. It has shown that there is a tremendous independent sentiment strength for Mr. Low. Judge Van Wyck, alive.

"Easy Boss" Says the Academy
'of Music Ratification Must Be Red Hot.

Senator Platt has given the order to his Brooklyn lieutenants that the Tracy meeting in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, tonight, must be made a successful one.

R. Ross Appleton, Michael J. Daly and Commissioner Willis had a conference with Mr. Platt yesterday morning and in the afternoon sent out the order to their district leaders to round up as many of the leather lunged enthusiastic party workers as could be made a rousing demonstration. Mr. Platt, however, has refused to leave Madrid in such a hurry. He declares that he must have long conferences with Sagasta and the Ministers of the Colonies, War and Foreign Affairs to enable him to interpret thoroughly the policy of the Government in Cuba. He also wishes to talk with as they could to attend the Tracy meeting and punctuate the candidate's address with the kind of campaign effervescence that will correct the impression that Brooklyn Republicans are for Tracy in a lukewarm fashion.

Mr. Platt told his Brooklyn lieutenants that the New York City meeting was too chilly for good campaign effect, and that a repetition of it in Brooklyn—the home city of General Tracy—would cost the Republican ticket thousands of votes. He impressed upon them the importance of giving the Mayorality nominee a big boom in the city in which he made his political reputation.

tion, and pointed out that the voters are influenced more by the size and enthusiasm of the radicalization meeting than by the speeches.

Mr. Rudy took charge of drumming up the party workers for to-night's meeting, and during yesterday afternoon he communicated with all the Platt leaders in the various wards. He hit upon the novel idea of having ward organizations brought to the meeting in special trolley cars. These will be lighted to glaring brilliancy by hundreds of electric globes, and every car will be decorated with the tri-colors. Ward leaders were asked to bring their own bands of music and to make the whole city ring with popular airs during the advance by trolley on the Træx meeting. While which he paid $3,000.

The bronzes, statuary, paintings, rugs and curios in the hotel and his homestead owned by Mr. Hoey were valued at upward of $100,000. Mr. Hoey's personal debt is not more than $3,000. This property is valued at $200,000. The property of Frederick C. Hoey, George C. Hoey and Josephine Hoey, children and heirs of the deceased, the meeting is in progress the trolley cars will be sidetracked in front of City Hall, and this is expected to have an inspiring effect on passers-by.

It is hoped by Mr. Platt that the speech of ex-Mayor Schroeder, who is to preside at the Tracy meeting, will have the effect of bringing into the party line many who

The Platt men are moving heaven and earth to get the Worth men to take an active part in to-night's meeting, and it is understood that they will do so in order to preserve their regularity.

ENGLAND IS THE DEBTOR.

Balance of Trade Is All Our Way, and American Purchases Fail to London, Oct. 10.—The resumption of gold shipments has changed the outlook for the money market. Grain shipments from the United States are now large; and cotton, which was scarce in the market, has been to and is of all other, none there is better, if any effect in the life of Americans is purchased in this market. So far, indeed, as stock operations are concerned, special circumstances in cash are being made to New York in connection with the coming sale of the Union Pacific Railroad.

These circumstances combine to indicate a somewhat large drain of gold and an additional drain of silver. The result is that the money market will be deeply interested in a remedy which will restore them to health, strength and vigor, without which they continue to live an existence of wretched misery. As the remedy in question was the result of many years' research as to what combination would be most effective in restoring to men the strength the need, it would seem that all men ought to write for such a remedy at once. A request stating you are not writing out of curiosity, but wish to give the remedy, to Mr. H. C.
